

Lodge Adviser Cook-Off - 2010

Each Lodge may enter as many teams as they wish in the Cook-off. Each Team must prepare an entrée and a dessert to be judged by a team appointed by the Section Leadership.

There may be no ground fires - and all equipment (gas stoves, charcoal, charcoal grills, pots, pans, dutch ovens, food, water containers, clean-up materials etc.) must be provide by the team. The Service Council will provide a cooking location, water source and one picnic table per team. Please keep in mind this event is rain or shine -- you might want to bring a tarp in case of foul weather or to provide shade.

Set-up / Start time for the event will be 11:50 a.m. (at the conclusion of Training)

The teams will be judged on three categories (3 awards to be presented) -> Best Entrée, Best Dessert, Best Presentation.

Judging Criteria:

Presentation - Organized, Clean and Neat, Overall Appearance, Communication with Spectators and participants, Proper care and use of ovens / stoves / heat, Clean prep area, etc.

(Score cards will be available Friday night of Conclave)

Judging will be begin promptly at 3:30 p.m. for the first team, and will go in about 15 minute intervals based upon the lodge rotation for conclave (with the current service lodge going first). This rotation will be used from year to year.

2010 - Tuckahoe Lodge 386 – 3:30 p.m.

2011 - Susquehannock XI

2012 - Kittatinny 5

2013 - Wunita Gokhos 39

2014 - Octoraro Lodge 22

The final judging schedule will be posted around 1:00 p.m., once it is determined how many teams will be competing.

All decisions by the Judges are final.
